

GHANA (Mailing Instructions)

CASH LINKS—Send LINKS money directly to Global Treasury Services) in Kansas City, and designate as cash LINKS for (name of missionary) in Ghana.

Inquire at your nearest post office for the most recent mailing instructions, forms to be used, and cost of mailing. You may do this on line by going to www.usps.com/international

Before sending parcels, please contact the missionaries to be sure they want to receive them.

1. PERSONAL PARCELS

MARK: “Personal Gift for Missionary—Not for Resale”

VALUE: State honest value.

NOTE: Ghana imports food from many different nations, including the USA. Mailing food items is not helpful since almost every American item is available, although expensive.

2. USED CLOTHING

MARK: “Used Clothing —Not For Resale” No monetary value.

3. PRINTED MATTER

MARK: “Religious Literature—Not For Resale”

VALUE: State honest value.

NOTE: Children’s Bible story quarterly and missionary reading books are appreciated.

Do not send used greeting or other Sunday School lesson material.

NOTE: Please put John OR Laurie Watton when addressing packages so that either one of them may pick the package up.

DUTY: Send $2 duty money per parcel to Global Treasury Services. Make checks payable to “General Treasurer,” and mark as “Duty Fund.” The missionary will be reimbursed for duty charges from this fund.